

Europe takes part!

How can artists connect and support each other across borders? What are the challenges for the arts and culture scene - also related to the current corona crisis? What role can and should digital spaces play in the future of European cultural policy?

Join us for an interactive event to discuss these questions, exchange your vision of the future of European arts and culture with high-level policy-makers, and contribute to strengthening culture and creatives in Europe! Register now for the

Summit on European Cultural Politics and New Digital Solutions

29 April 2021 | 14:00 - 17:45 CET | online

I want to participate

More information

---

Curious to do more? Join the “Europe takes part!” endeavour!

We are searching for 30 European arts and culture practitioners to share their needs and experiences in a remunerated workshop. Based on their shared demands, we will lay the basis for civic tech solutions:

“Europe takes part!” Workshops

8 and 9 April / 6 and 7 May 2021 | online

I want to participate

More information

Questions? Contact us: europetakespart@progressives-zentrum.org.

We look forward to the dialogue with you!

Goethe-Institut

Das Progressive Zentrum

---

These events are part of “Europe takes part!”, a project by Das Progressive Zentrum in cooperation with the Goethe-Institut, supported by the German Federal Foreign Office. “Europe takes part!” aims to shed light on the role of arts and culture in Europe and to strengthen its actors through the use of digital tools.

A project by

In cooperation with

Supported by

